Chief Lindemulder Announces Retirement, Lieutenant Smith to Become Interim Chief

Chief Lyle Lindemulder has announced his retirement effective December 29, 2022 after 33 years of service with the Bath Township Police Department.

Chief Lindemulder began his career as a ride along in 1987. Chief Gene Reno then hired him the following year as a Police Cadet. After graduating from the Police Academy in 1989, he was sworn in as a Bath Township Police Officer that same day. He was appointed as Chief of Police in 2017. Thank you, Chief Lindemulder, for your years of dedication and sincere commitment to the Bath Township community.

The Board of Trustees voted on Monday, November 21, 2022 to approve an employment agreement for Gary Smith to become Interim Police Chief. Gary has over 25 years of service with the Bath Township Police Department. He started with the department as a Cadet Officer in 1991 and became a part-time Officer in 1993. After a short time away from the department, Gary became a full-time Officer for Bath Township in 1996. Gary has served in many positions throughout his career including Cadet, Officer, Detective, Sergeant, and Lieutenant.
